WINEMAKING:

Toro D.O. it is a very interesting area: the variety of tinta de toro or “tempranillo” has here a completely different expresión to the rest of Spain. The fruit intensity, the cleanness of the grape appears as the fundamental characteristic, and when more old is the vineyard more complex is the resulting wine. This wine was produced from the local Tinta de Toro grapes variety, selected from low yielding vineyards over 100 years old. It has been aged in Allier French oak barrels and for 10-12 months in the bottle.
