Tasting Notes

Ripe aromas with a citrus note lead to a delicious rounded palate of fruit supported with a touch of spice and vanilla, beautifully integrated it finishes with a mouth-watering bite that makes you take another sip!

Winemaking

This wine was produced in the Valle do Salnés in the region of Galicia in the Northwest of Spain. Albariño grapes have been grown in Galicia for centuries. The wine was left on its fine lees to provide the roundness and creamy structure on the palate, and the optimal conditions were adhered to ensuring quality consumption.

Food Pairings

It pairs ideally with any kind of shellfish, grilled fish, salads, chicken, seafood paella, pasta with clams,
